Western Stamp Collectors

Aug 5th 1942

American Numismatic Society

The stage is all set for holding the largest and best convention in the history of the American Numismatic Association.

From the top man down to every worker in the ranks everything possible has been done to assure every visitor to this convention a most educational and enjoyable time.

To begin with, the committee in charge consists of three of the most prominent coin collectors in the city of Cincinnati; men known nationally for their knowledge and interest in the hobby. They are Chris. Rembold, chairman; Thomas G. Melish, vice chairman, and Wm. J. Schultz, secretary. They in turn have appointed a strong committee to handle the actual work, composed of Sol Kaplan, managing director; Harry Brake, assistant and Edward S. Horwitz, stamp editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer and writer for national stamp and business magazines, in charge of publicity, and others. All of these men have had exhaustive experience in handling conventions and may be depended upon to produce one that will not only be a credit to the hobby and to Cincinnati, but will be something to be talked about for years to come.

It is difficult and almost impossible to describe in words the pleasant and enjoyable times that lie in wait for every visitor to this convention. Here dealers, collectors and families and friends will have the opportunity of meeting old friends of long standing, making new acquaintances, viewing excellent coin exhibits in the beautiful Hall of Mirrors of the Netherland Plaza Hotel, and attending the various parties and social functions which have been carefully planned for both the men and women. Here, for a change, the men and women folks can each go their own way without having to worry about the other having a good time, as everyone will be properly and enjoyably taken care of during their stay in Cincinnati.

Many unusual sights await the visitor to this convention; an open electric car tour of beautiful Cincinnati, "the city of seven hills"; trips to the Cincinnati Art Museum, Taft Museum, the nationally known Rookwood Pottery and a boat ride up the scenic Ohio river to Cincinnati's own Coney Island, a large and beautiful amusement park. These are in addition to the many other good times planned for our visitors, so plan to come to Cincinnati on August 22nd prepared to stay for a whole week, a real holiday, or you will suffer a lifetime of regrets.
